Secretary - Treasurer Ken Wright, presented the financial statement showing 85 members for 1950 and a balance on hand of $53.39.

Good discussions were held on several subjects, the most interesting being the sponsoring of a junior club for this district and taking of some action to get a local exchange established by the Alberta Government Telephones in Beiseker. It was also decided that the Board of Trade would sponsor an agricultural short course to be held here sometime in February.

The following were elected as the executive for 1951:

Wright, secretary-treasurer; John Leiske, trustee, 2 years; Matt Schmaltz, trustee, 2 years; Roy Berreth, trustee, 1 year; Peter Ternes, trustee, 1 year. Rose Sander Weds Lorne J. Stinn In Beiseker Bridal BEISEKER. — On Tuesday, Jan. 16th a very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Beiseker, when Rose Angeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sander, Beiseker, became the bride of Lorne Joseph Stinn, Rockyford.

Rev. A. Tennant officiated at the marriage ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. Very Rev. J. Q. Killen was present in the sanctuary. Two altar boys, Allan and Owen Muenchrath, were the bridegroom's little nephews, Mattie Schmaltz, the bride's cousin and Jack Bettin, Mrs. Lou Brosteaux played the wedding march, and accompanied the senior choir during the mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin, full flowing skirt, net inset yoke trimmed with beads and long lily-point sleeves. Her long veil was held in place by a wreath worn halo effect. Her corsage was of red roses.

She was attended by the bridegroom's cousin, Loreen Stinn and the bride's cousin, Angela Schmaltz. Loreen chose a pale blue net gown over taffeta, pale blue bridesmaid's bonnet and her corsage was of yellow roses; Angela wore a pink satin gown with matching bridesmaid's bonnet and her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Anselm Sander and Charles Stinn. Ushers were Mr. L. L. Schmaltz and Mr. Harvey Katterhagen.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the Memorial hall for the bridal couple and their attendants. Later in the day a wedding dinner was held for 75 close relatives and friends. A beautiful 3-tier wedding cake centered the bride's table. Rev. A. E. Tennant proposed the toast to the bride. A wedding dance was held in the evening.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Stinn will reside in Rockyford.

MERMAID goes nicely native as Esther Williams wears this eye-catching sarong in the new film, 'Pagan Love Song.' Filmed on the Pacific island of Kauai, it has all the elements of romance and adventure.

Mr. Ken Wright was pleased to receive the first shipment of furniture for the new bank last week. This shipment consisted of chairs and stools. It gives one a little idea of how beautiful it will be when it is all finished.

The Board of Trade

In some communities the Board of Trade is labelled "Chamber of Commerce". We don't like this designation, particularly in Alberta, because the really important part of any Alberta organization is the part shared by district farmers. Commerce makes us think in terms of shopkeepers only, but trade is universal. Without help of the farm group most Boards of Trade or Chambers of Commerce don't amount to much.

There should be one important annual meeting, a full-dress dinner meeting with members and their wives (and husbands), after dinner speaker and a short period of entertainment. The University of Alberta supplies interesting film subjects. This is followed by reports from various committees and election of executive.

The executive should be the working, driving force that gets things done. Big attendance or small attendance at monthly general meetings doesn't make much difference—unless there's a hard core of executive stalwarts who will carry the load and provide the initiative in every worth-while endeavor.

Activities suitable for Board of Trade work include calf and grain clubs, summer fairs and rodeos, sport days, public libraries, recreation centres, promotion of hockey and baseball teams and leagues and many other positive works.

Most Alberta Boards of Trade would be well advised to take a leaf from the book of the Killam and District Board of Trade. This group is "tops" in Board of Trade work. Groups interested in using a successful Board as a pattern should write to Edward Fee, Jr., Killam, secretary of the Killam Board of Trade.

40-hour Farm Week?

The Saskatchewan government blames Mr. Gardiner for the decline in hog production in that province. Mr. Gardiner replies that the fault lies entirely with the province's own Socialist government. But a Saskatchewan farmer tells us that he quit raising hogs because he couldn't do it working a forty-hour week.

Although this editorial is headed in such a way as to indicate we might be suggesting a 40-hour week on the farm, nothing could be more ridiculous. If the average Alberta farmer were to work only 8 hours a day, five days a week, we daresay the agriculture production would drop by one-third. This would make farm produce so scarce the price would climb by nearly 50 per cent.

The city worker would then have to work 60 hours per week to earn enough money just to be able to eat.

Hon. George Prudham advocates establishment of a 44- or 48-hour week in Canadian industry to combat inflation and assist in our defence effort. Only by doing more work can we maintain our standard of living in the face of higher taxes due to the Korean war and unsettled world conditions.

Liberty of the Gospel

The teaching of and about Jesus Christ, so widely known throughout the world and yet so little understood by so many people, are essentially teachings of freedom and liberty. The Christian faith calls for no self-abasement and bodily torture as do many of the pagan and primitive teachings of other religions. The Gospel of Christ is a Gospel of Love, that leaves the individual free to accept or reject it.

This freedom, therefore, is a cherished liberty. The Christian is bound to his Master only by the "chords of love." Compulsion implies hate; imprisonment and enslavement mean resentment.

The follower of Jesus Christ, whether he or she has devoted her whole working life to the Gospel or is simply a devotee in secular employment, is held by the bonds of free will.

Perhaps that is why the Communist world has seen fit to throw out personal liberty and Christian teachings at the same time. The two don't go together.

Note and Comment

There is much to be learned from a reading of history but who reads it?

Bulletin Bows Out

BY T. W. PUE

According to the Saturday, January 20th issue of the Edmonton Bulletin, business in the newspaper line is so good the old paper can't stay in business. With two high-speed presses, each capable of turning out a daily newspaper, the management finds themselves short of equipment. With greatly increased revenue in advertising and circulation, they find it impossible to carry on, and so the 70-year-old paper is "folded", out of business. There are 179 employees affected by the sudden change.

Never too reasonable, and often illogical in their thinking, this last announcement by the editors of the Bulletin is downright unbelievable to the average person. I think, though that there is a logical explanation.

T. W. Pue

The Edmonton Journal is immediately taking over the circulation of the Bulletin. Is this a sell-out to the Southam interests, to enable the Journal to dominate the Edmonton daily newspaper field?

Although the announcement of this had not been made up to the end of last week, don't be surprised if the Journal now takes possession of the equipment and stock-in-trade of the Bulletin to positively eliminate all competition.

Being publishers of the only daily newspaper in an area so huge as Northern Alberta, and in a city of 160,000 population poses a tremendous issue in discussion of public affairs. Henceforth there is no daily newspaper to contradict the Southam paper. It is therefore up to the weekly press, to keep alive and awake to public issues.

Although I've always considered the Southam Press fair and reasonable in their editorial columns, the editors are still human, and we accept the challenge presented to us of voicing the "other side" of questions where such airing in the press is warranted.

THE SWAMP FIRES

I was in Newbrook and Waskatenau last September when the swamp fires made the old-fashioned forest fire look like a burnt out match. The Alberta sun was blotted out by smoke. Even in Michigan, Alberta smoke was causing the sun to cast a weird light over the Midwest area.

At Pontiac, Michigan, a reporter, trying to catch up on his work, sat in an empty newspaper office that Sunday afternoon. Phone calls from residents seeking details on the eerie phenomenon kept interrupting him.

Growing more and more irritated, the reporter grabbed the receiver of a jingling phone. A woman inquired:

"What's happening? Is the world coming to an end?"

"I don't know, lady," barked the reporter. "The religious editor isn't here today!"

GIRL FRIEND

I must confide with my readers details of a very beautiful friendship I have nurtured with a member of the opposite sex. She's a pretty little cutie, good looking and a good talker. She likes to go driving with me, and when she's around there's never a dull moment.

Now, the fact I have a definite attachment for this young lady is no reflection on Mrs. Pue's qualities as a wife and mother. I wouldn't be so brash as to utter: "I love my wife—but oh you kid!". And Judy wouldn't expect it of me. She's quite happy to have me call around just occasionally, whenever I'm in Smoky Lake.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Romanchuk, aren't really worried about Judy's future. But I'll bet the boys will go crazy over her when she's sweet sixteen! That'll be in 1962.

By the way—Mrs. Romanchuk does an excellent job of editing the Smoky Lake Gazette, in addition to a full time teaching job at the new, modern public school in Smoky Lake. Mr. Romanchuk is district superintendent of Canadian Oil in Northern Alberta.

FOUR MEN ON A TRAIN

Last Tuesday morning the train from Smoky Lake to Edmonton was packed. Children from rural Alberta were returning to the Edmonton Industrial Indian School. A fiddle and a guitar mingled with happy voices in song, made the railroad coach a happy place. The friendly group of Indian children munched on candies and other treats, freely exchanging and swapping with each other.

Four men on the train were enjoying the contents of a bottle, passing from one to the other.

Three of these men made frequent trips to the back of the coach, stealing furtive glances at the rear entrance. As the train approached the Edmonton depot they became apprehensive. Were they expected? Would somebody be there to meet them?

Someone was there to greet them. Three uniformed R.C.M.P. officers boarded the car as it ground to a stop opposite the depot. They allowed everyone to leave except the three drinkers.

It seems there was the little matter of a bank robbery earlier up the line at Bonnyville...

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!

Change gears before crossing

This motoring family was lucky enough to escape death, but the family sedan is headed for the scrap heap. Stalling in the path of oncoming trains will cause many serious accidents this year. Take crossings slowly, after a full stop, and change gears before crossing.

Forget God?

Dear Sir—I must write a piece to be printed in the Voice of the People. But first I want to say how much it means to have a man for the editor who believes in Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Too many people have forgotten God and that is why it is in the state it's in today. Print this to your own good knowledge and let us have some more Godly articles.

Word of God

Dear Sir—Congratulations on a splendid little paper.

I'm afraid Mr. Nixon of Forestburg is rather unreliable as far as quoting scripture, and can scarcely be regarded as an authority.

I think Mr. Nixon had better look to the word of God in the future rather than depend upon some weak-kneed pharisee who will be cast into the darkness along with the hypocrites, unless he mends his ways.

'Insulting Letters'

Dear Sir—For the most part I have been pleased with your paper, but I think you should refuse to publish such low, insulting letters as that one under the heading 'Athiest.'

Now what possible good could be attained by publishing such blasphemy as is expressed in this letter?

I remain yours in upholding 'God's Word.'

Red Cross Hospital to Serve Alberta's Crippled Children

A dream in brick and concrete, tile and glass will come true March 3 when the new Alberta Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital in Calgary formally opens its doors to Alberta's crippled children.

For 12 years, ever since the present hospital was found to be too small, the men and women of Alberta have envisioned an adequate hospital for their crippled youngsters. The new red brick building standing on the highest hilltop in Calgary is the result of their work and courage, for they have given nearly one million dollars to its construction.

In modern style, and employing all the modern tricks of capturing the most air and sunlight, the new four-floor hospital is shaped like an enormous "V" with wide-spread and welcoming arms.

It is built on land donated tax free by the City of Calgary, which has been home of the Red Cross work for crippled children since 1922.

This spring the grounds will be landscaped and seeded, to give the children even more beautiful surroundings.

The new hospital will officially accommodate 119 patients, with room for 30 more in emergency. Medical treatment is given for club foot, tubercular bone conditions, osteomyelitis, convalescence and deformities from infantile paralysis, congenital dislocation of the hip, malunited fractures and contractions following burns, sarcoma, coeliac disease, spinal curvatures, spastic hæmiplegia and spina bifida.

SPECIAL CLINICS

Children from all over Alberta, the Northwest Territories and Peace River Block, whose parents cannot afford prolonged orthopaedic care, are welcome to the hospital. For those who do not need hospitalization, there is the Out-Patients' Clinic where parents are instructed to care for the child, and where needed braces and splints are fitted. More than 7,000 children have been treated so far at the hospital.

Every angle has been considered in the inside equipping and decorating of the hospital. Pastel walls and acoustic tile ceilings take the place of the old-time "hospital white." The wards are furnished for the convenience and comfort of both patients and nurses; the school rooms are equipped for comfortable study; the handicraft rooms and the gym-

ALTA. ON GUARD AGAINST 'FLU

Alberta is being guarded against an outbreak here of England's influenza epidemic and there is little danger of it reaching here unless by direct contact, Dr. Norman Baster, Director of communicable diseases, stated Monday.

He stated that an arrangement has been made through which types of influenza discovered in Alberta can be identified and compared with the type striking sections of England.

Dr. Baster said there is no evidence that the present wave of influenza is related to the epidemic that swept the world in 1918. Most health authorities attribute the heavy death toll in the current English outbreak to after-effects mainly bronchial pneumonia which has been striking elderly persons.

The communicable diseases director for the province offered simple advice to Albertans desiring to guard against colds and influenza.

Saying that there was no grounds for worrying about a wave of influenza here, he advised citizens to avoid becoming overtired, to avoid crowds, to stay home in bed when colds strike, and to consult doctors when necessary.

nasium are based on functional design.

From the modern kitchens on the ground floor to the sterile and completely equipped operating rooms on the second floor and the open solarium on the roof, the new Alberta Red Cross Crippled Children's Hospital is indeed a "dream" hospital.

Visitors who wish to tour the new structure are welcome at all times for it is Alberta's hospital with one object in mind, to make the "lame to walk" among Alberta's children.

FUA To Discuss Fate Of Two 'Red' Directors

The strife-torn Farmers' Union of Alberta will soon know the fate of two union executives branded as "Communist".

Executive of the FUA will meet at the end of this month to discuss expulsion of F. E. Maricle, Hamlin, and Ray Garneau, Wainwright, who have been asked to resign because of pro-communist attitudes.

They have both refused to resign.

Maricle recently attended the World Peace Congress in Warsaw. At the time, directors said they deplored the spectacle of an FUA executive "lending himself and his talents to a Communist-inspired, so-called peace congress."

Maricle spoke in Edmonton recently at a public meeting sponsored by the Edmonton Peace Council.

Maricle said the failure of Canada to recognize the Communist regime in China is acting as a barrier to World Peace and spoke of highlights of the World Peace Congress and its discussion of the problems in Germany and Korea.

Many of the audience signed petitions following the meeting, asking that Canada give official recognition to the Chinese Communist government.

The petitions will be mailed to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, the petitioners said.

Right to vote in Canada's federal elections is conferred on all British subjects 21 years of age or older who have resided in Canada for 12 months prior to polling day.

Seed Growers Urge Farmers To Sow Good Seed This Year

That's a suggestion from the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association. It's a good suggestion that has the support of all good farmers and agriculturists throughout the province.

Clean, pure, sound, viable seed has the best chance of producing a profitable crop; weak, mixed, poorly cleaned seed has the poorest chance.

Farmers should ensure themselves against a poor stand this season by planting the kind of seed they'll be proud to harvest. If there's any doubt about the quality of grain, farmers should see their District Agriculturist or elevator agent. Sow good seed for better crops this year.

The common cold can result in decreased hearing.

LEVEL LAND TOPICS

Marilyn Stern of Level Land is a queen candidate for the Beiseker Lions' sixth annual carnival.

The Level Land band had a party after band practice last Monday night; sandwiches, ice cream and cake was served. Inez York was in charge of the games that were played and all had a good time, but just before the party ended Mrs. York was surprised to discover the party was for her and not for Mr. Holling. Her first words were, "My—I had to prepare games for my own party—" but the biggest surprise was Mervin Dick on behalf of the band presented her with a lovely vanity stool. It was Sam Leiske's lot to take Mr. Holling back to Calgary.

Della Huether was visiting her home here over the weekend. Other weekend visitors were Lois Fuller, Gordon Swengle, and Harvey Lamming of Canadian Union College.

Saturday night, educational films were gain shown in the S. D. A. hall. One of the films was the Red Cross Water Safety film. All enjoyed the pictures.

On Saturday night, just before the films were shown, a few of the Dorcas' ladies were at the church preparing wool for the quilt being made for the Red Cross. It will be sewn sometime this week.

Mrs. Henry Stern and Mr. Sam Huether were busy this week taking listings for articles being made in this district to be sold at the sale on Jan. 31 for the Junior Red Cross. The list looks pretty good and it is estimated that well over $200 will be taken in.

Peggy Huether and Harvey Bechthold were home for the weekend.

Robert Taylor is starring in "Pioneer Woman," a romantic yarn about a hard-bitten, woman-hating Indian scout, who guides a group of women across the prairies during the gold-rush days. It's to be in Technicolor.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Mother Objects to Daughter Going Out With Boy Friend

DEAR LOUISA — I am a girl of 18, and my mother disagrees with me going out with the boy I'm going with.

We have been going together since last June. I hate leaving him as I have no reason. We like each other a lot, but mother has always tried to break us up.

What shall I do? Should I listen to her objections, or should I keep on going around with him?

Is it up to a mother to pick a boy friend for her daughter?

PUZZLED.

Answer:

No, 'Puzzled,' I certainly wouldn't say that it is up to a mother to select her daughter's boy friend. But your mother might have very sensible reasons for objecting to this particular boy.

It is difficult to give you practical advice when I do not know your boy friend. Perhaps your mother is unjustified in her objections, but she may have very good reasons for all I know.

One thing is definite—your mother undoubtedly has your best interests at heart—and in objecting to your boy friend she must feel you will be better off without him.

My advice to you would be to try and find out exactly why she objects to this young man. If you can do that, your problem may be a whole lot less puzzling.

Once you find out her real reasons, you will have to decide for yourself whether she is justified in her objections, and then act accordingly.

LOUISA.

Question:

I was engaged to a young man for over a year. Having broken up over another man should I return his diamond ring and other expensive presents?

WORRIED.

Answer:

Yes, his ring should be returned to him... the ring is the symbol of an agreement to marry. An offer to return any large or expensive gift is also the accepted thing to do.

Prosperous Times Foreseen In Alberta During Year

Industrial expansion may set new records in Alberta during 1951, according to government experts who foresee widespread development of natural resources during the year.

Oil, agriculture, lumbering, and manufacturing face bright prospects for the future.

Agriculture will receive a tremendous boost throughout the southern portion of the province with the completion of a vast irrigation scheme now underway.

The boost to agriculture will stimulate the whole economy of Alberta.

In the central Alberta, oil development is continuing apace.

In the far north of the province, development of the huge oil sands deposits around McMurray may actually get underway by the end of the year.

The lumbering industry will also make major contributions to Alberta's prosperity. One new project now being launched is a $13,000,000 pulp and paper mill outside Edmonton.

A new kind of industry may become established here this year if plans of Swedish industrialists to launch a manufacturing plant to make a new type of building wood, 'Stramit,' materialize.

All in all, a prosperous and progressive year is expected in the Foothills province.

Mr. Stout is 83 and Mrs. Stout is 75. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary several years ago.

The heartfelt sympathy of this district goes out to this aged couple in their sad misfortune.

Canada's 1950 wheat crop is estimated at 462 million bushels, 68 million bushels above the average of the preceding ten years but the 1950 crop grades are lower in quality.

Supt. M. McLeod Is Guest Speaker At Beiseker Meet

BEISEKER.—Approximately 30 teachers gathered at the Beiseker school on Wednesday, January 17th. The large turnout expected some worthwhile advice from Supt. Munroe McLeod and they were not disappointed. Mr. McLeod noted the tendency in many teachers to be either entirely "traditional" or entirely "progressive." He condemned both extremes and recommended a middle course which combined the worthwhile features of the old-fashioned and modern systems.

"Many people are of the opinion that children learn absolutely nothing in the schools of today," Mr. McLeod said. "If I could take them to some of the schools in the Wheatland Division they would change their minds."

Eight controversial issues concerning the teaching of reading were next dealt with. At least two conclusions were reached:

1. The issues are as controversial as ever.
2. There is no "one best method" of teaching reading. Individual differences in pupils make it necessary for the teacher of today to be a "highly trained craftsman" with a variety of techniques at her disposal. Miss Weisgerber is to be congratulated on the quality and quantity of the lunch offered. Many teachers were wondering where Mr. Plante and Mr. Bunyan learned to wipe dishes.

Last year there were 1,796,000 horses on Canadian farms, a million less than in 1940.

Knitting is Most Popular Of All Needlecraft Arts

DURING the long winter evenings the thoughts of many women turn to needlecraft. In the quiet of your own living room while listening to a favorite program you can make many articles for your home or gift items for friends. Of all the needlecraft arts knitting seems to be one of the most popular. Knitted articles are quick and easy to do, and are truly beautiful.

Naturally, when you spend your precious time in knitting an article with your own fair hands you'll want to care for it properly so that it will give you maximum wear and keep its attractive appearance for the longest possible time. Here are several hints that may be of help to you.

It is always better to wash your hand-knitted garments by hand yourself. When washing woollen garments be sure the water is lukewarm and that you have lots of suds. Clean the garment by gently squeezing suds through and through it, not by rubbing two surfaces of the garment together. A bar of soap should never be rubbed into soiled parts of a woollen article as this makes it very difficult to remove every trace of soap when you rinse the garment. Remember, too, that a woollen garment should be supported by the hands when you are removing it from the water, because the weight of the wet garment may stretch the yarn.

Socks are best dried on a wooden stretcher, and you can press them on this type of stretcher too. Using a very damp cloth and a hot iron, use as little pressure as possible... it's the steam that presses your garment not the weight of the iron.

Sweaters and larger garments should be pressed in the same manner after they have been blocked. If you haven't a large table put a sheet on the carpet and, using a centre line, block your garment to the required measurements. Use rustproof pins at one inch intervals to secure the garment, tilting the heads of the pins outward to prevent the iron from conflicting with them when you press.

It's a little difficult to think about spring weather at this time of the year but here are a couple of pointers about storing your woollen garments when the warm weather does come. First of all, be sure they're perfectly clean with no spots. Soiled woollens are a moth's delight! Wrap the garment in tissue if it's a light color, then in newspaper and seal it up with tape. Throw in a few mothballs for good measure. When it's time to use your woollens again the following season, preserve their pretty colors by airing them away from direct sunlight.

An example of the beauty of hand-knitted articles is the pretty little angora bonnet pictured above. When winter winds doth blow and Jack Frost is up to his usual tricks of nipping ears and fingertips meet his mischief with this ear-warming cap. It's very simply knitted and you'll be sure to find just the shade you wish among the many scrumptious angora colors. You'll require two half ounce balls for one bonnet but three balls will make two bonnets. Along with the instructions for the bonnet there are directions, too, for a matching pair of Fuzzy-Wuzzy mitts on Leaflet No. CW-9 which you may have by writing to the Needlework Dept. of this paper. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for ANGORA BONNET & MITTS.
